Let's Rock n' Roll with RDO

Band Aunt Betty Serenades on Valentine's Day

The Ringgold Depot Opry returns with a lineup of extraordinary entertainers in the New Year! RDO's 2026 schedule includes shows in February, May, and August, with a possible Christmas special in December. First up is '80s Rock Band, Aunt Betty, who will be hitting the stage on Feb 14th for "A Night of Love and Songs." Proceeds from this event benefit Friends of Crossroads Inc., a local nonprofit dedicated to creating an all-ages, all-abilities park in Ringgold. The show starts at 8 pm, and you must be 21 or older to attend. General Admission tickets are $10, and VIP tickets are $20. To purchase your tickets online or learn more about RDO's nonprofit partner, please visit nothinlikeringgold.com.

Did You Love Our Lights?

Help Ringgold's Holiday Light Display Grow

Throughout December, Ringgold was transformed into a winter wonderland of magical holiday lights. The display included a stunning Christmas tree at Citizen's Park, lights along Nashville Street, a moving locomotive on the Depot bridge, lights covering Ringgold City Hall, and the Illumination Station at Depot Square, which was a walk-through experience with multiple photo opportunities. If you enjoyed any of the light displays this year, please take a quick survey at the link below. We need your feedback to ensure Christmas lights return in 2026!

A New Home for The Ringgold Playhouse

The Ringgold Playhouse is experiencing a lot of “new” in the New Year. With the growing popularity of its shows and its goals expanding beyond a few productions a year, TRP decided to take its final bow on the Depot stage last Fall. Now, the Playhouse finally has its own dedicated theater space and is settled into its new home at 7849 Nashville Street! This space allows the TRP to expand its horizons and foray into murder—mystery dinner shows, camps, and workshops. Along with these new additions, the Playhouse will continue to offer several comedy clubs and theatrical productions throughout the year. The first show of the season is Boeing Boeing, a comedy by Mark Camoletti, which will run on February 14th, 20th–22nd, and 27th–28th. Be sure to follow TRP on Facebook (linked at the bottom of this page) for more information.
